FEUERMAN, KENDELL AND MARIN ARE THREE ARTISTS OF GREAT FAME AND YOUNG MANO PHOTOGRAPHER PROUD TO BE IN MONUMENTAL GV-----

LAURENCE JENKELL: Laurence Jenkell is a French female artist, neophyte and is now well known for her « Sweet geopolitics » as she performed sculptures of giant Flavored Candies of Peace. « Candy Nations » exhibition, displayed in Cannes in 2011 in the margins of the G20 Summit, propelled Laurence Jenkell far above the insiders' orbit. She conceptualises what will be her lifetime artwork and starts to create multicoloured treats, following the Neo Pop tradition. Her artwork is polymorphous. Her Candies will then be exhibited around the world, in more than 25 countries and universality message. In October 2019, Paris chose to welcome the giant Candies, international treats with a strong peace flavor. "I thank all the people who contributed to this exhibition and in particular Mr Chabanian of I am very proud to have come on a confession, and I am very moved to make this exhibition in my country, because often I am more represented abroad and delighted to be with my artist friend." stated Laurence Jenkell.

CAROLE FEUERMAN : Carole A Feuerman is a multi awarded sculptor, since she was a little girl, from New York. She performs sculptures and Bronze, in a string hyper-realism. There are five full-color monographs written about her work, including a new full color catalogue raisonné by Scheidegger & Spiess. Her first swimmer sculpture, Catalina is included in A History of Western Art, published by Harry N. Abrams, and written by Anthony Mason and John T. Spike. You can see her work in museums, as well endured.

« How long did you take it. From one to three years I'm very proud of my new work, you might see the dancers and I wanted to do something more rebellious and I'm so glad and proud to be here in Champs Elysee, Avenue Georges V, just amazing. Some pieces come from Venice, Biennale, and this opportunity in Paris, in FIAC and other shows, it is a celebration of Art and thank you all for being part of it. » Through my sculptures I convey my feelings about life and art. It is far easier for me to express my emotions through sculpture than through words. I portray the inner life of each image I create in order to capture the passion and sensuality of my subject. In this way, my work speaks to the viewer, evoking both an emotional and an intellectual response. » As stated Carole A. Feuerman.
